

TURKISH LANGUAGE TEACHING CENTER

Turkish Language Proficiency

Article 13- a) Turkish Language Teaching Center (TOMER) is to conduct a Turkish Language Proficiency exam in order to determine the Turkish Language Level of the candidates who do not have Turkish Language Certificates (at least B1, B2, C1, C2 levels according to European Language Passport framework)

According to the results of the Turkish Language Proficiency Exam:

C1 - C2 Level: Student's level of Turkish language is adequate. The student can start his education at the university.

B1 - B2 Level: Student's level of Turkish language is adequate enough to start his/her education, but he/she has to increase his/her level of proficiency of Turkish language to C1 or C2 level by the time he/she graduates from the university.

A1 - A2 Level: Student's level of Turkish language is inadequate. The student will have permission for 1 year absence. At the end of the year, he/she has to increase his/her level of proficiency of Turkish language to C1 or C2 level by attending Turkish Language courses.
